

ERIN M. WALTERS

CEO, Neighbor to Neighbor of SC
<https://n2ncarolinas.org/>

Erin Walters has served as Chief Executive Officer of Neighbor to Neighbor (N2N) since November 2023, leading the organization's mission to connect older adults, veterans, and adults with disabilities to essential services and their community. Since 2005, N2N has provided reliable transportation, pantry deliveries, and connectedness programs across Horry, Georgetown, and Williamsburg Counties, promoting independence, access to care, and reducing isolation.

Erin brings more than 15 years of leadership experience across nonprofit and for-profit sectors. Her career includes extensive expertise in operations management, organizational turnaround, and strategic growth. She has successfully revitalized underperforming programs, implemented sustainable business models, and built strong systems that improve efficiency and community impact. She has grown and stewarded funding streams ranging from small local awards to large multi-year federal grants, and executed successful fundraising events.

She is a graduate of Francis Marion University's Fred Sheheen Nonprofit Leadership Institute and Leadership Grand Strand, and served as Chair of Waccamaw Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (VOAD) for three years, where she was recognized for collaborative leadership in times of crisis.

Known as a results-driven leader and agent of change, Erin is inspired daily by N2N's dedicated volunteers and is committed to expanding equitable access to transportation.

